

PROPERTY TAXPAYER BILL OF RIGHTS

A property taxpayer has the following rights under State law:

- The right to understand the real property assessment process and the requirements of the New Jersey Constitution concerning the assessment of real property
- The right to understand the calculation of the assessment on their real property
- The right to detailed information about how to appeal an assessment of real property
- The right to view the real property assessment of any other parcel of real property in the municipality in which the taxpayer's property is located
