5-34.3 Fee.

a. Upon filing such application, the applicant shall pay to the Construction Code Department a fee of one hundred ($100.00) dollars for such license or for relicensing after revocation of a license previously issued to such applicant in accordance with the provisions of subsection 5-34.11 hereof; provided, however, that if the applicant demonstrates that he or she does not employ, at any time, more than one person, the fee shall be fifty ($50.00) dollars.

b. The term of such license shall expire on December 31 of the calendar year in which such license is issued except in the case of licenses issued in calendar year 2003, in which case such licenses shall expire on December 31, 2004.

c. Such license shall be renewed by the Construction Official upon payment by the applicant of an annual renewal fee of fifty ($50.00) dollars except in the case of an applicant who demonstrates that he or she does not employ, at any time, more than one (1) person, in which case the annual renewal fee shall be thirty ($30.00) dollars. The licensee must make an application for renewal not earlier than ninety (90) days before the commencement of the calendar year for which such renewal is sought and not later than the commencement of the calendar year for which such renewal is sought. Upon failure to renew any license on or before March 31 of the immediately succeeding calendar year, any subsequent license shall be construed to be a new or original license, subject to the filing of a new application in accordance with the provisions of subsection 5-34.2 hereof and to the payment of the fee specified in subsection 5-34.3a.

(Ord. No. 2003-(O)-49 § 3)

5-34.4 Standards.

All work shall be done in accordance with the Uniform Construction Code of the State and must be done in a good and workmanlike manner. (Ord. No. 2004-(O)-49 § 4) 5-34.5 Classes of Licenses.

For the purpose of this section, there shall be the following classes for licensing:

a. General Contractor or Builder. A contractor who is proficient in the construction of a building or structure and the alteration, addition to or repair of any building or structure. This class of contractor shall be equipped to handle such work either by and through the contractor's organization or appropriate subcontractors and, in the latter event, shall be completely responsible for the subcontractors' work.

b. Roofing and Siding Contractor. A contractor who is engaged in the business of or who is proficient in the applying of roofing and siding materials to existing or new buildings or structures.

c. Demolition Contractor. A contractor who is engaged in the business of or who is proficient in the demolition of any building or structure, in whole or in part.

d. Moving Contractor. A contractor who is engaged in the business of or who is proficient in the moving of any building or structure.

e. Swimming Pool Contractor. A contractor who is engaged in the business of or who is proficient in the installation of swimming pools, their equipment and appurtenances.

f. Sign or Billboard Contractor. A contractor who is engaged in the business of or who is proficient in the erection, alteration or maintenance of signs or billboards.

g. Central Air Conditioning or Heating System Contractor. A contractor who is engaged in the business of or who is proficient in the installation of central air conditioning or heating systems.

h. Sidewalk or Driveway Contractor. A contractor who is engaged in the business of or who is proficient in the construction or replacement of sidewalks or driveways.

i. Miscellaneous Contractor. A contractor who is proficient in work of a special character, as determined by the Construction Official.
